

Scholarships due in March:

Stacey Levitt Memorial Award – Stacey was struck and killed by a car while jogging in North Toronto. This award encourages students to embody Stacey’s qualities and ideals, of a long life lived to the fullest. Award is open to anyone currently attending a Canadian secondary school. Full application details on website.

Value - $2,500

Deadline – March 1, 2019

Website: www.parachutecanada.org/programs/topic/C413 or find it on www.studentscholarships.org

John Hasselfield Endowment Foundation- This scholarship is not for post-secondary education. Students must be presently enrolled in an Alberta public school. Complete a 500 word essay, along with a letter of reference. Full details on website.

Value - $400 max

Deadline – March 1, 2019

Website: www.johnhasselfield.com/applandselect.html

ReMax Quest for Excellence Program – This bursary recognizes leadership and community contributions of Western Canadian students. Grade 12 students can earn a $1000 bursary to be used towards further education. Students must submit an essay (max. 1,250 words) which conveys your motivation, leadership and communication skills in connection with your community efforts. See website for complete details.

Value - $1000 (16 bursaries are awarded in Western Canada)

Deadline – Midnight on March 11

Website: <https://blog.remax.ca/remax-western-canada-helps-grade-12s-bursary-program/>

The Leonard Foundation Scholarship – This scholarship is available to students who can demonstrate financial need and are enrolling full time in an undergraduate degree program in Canada. Successful applicants are expected to obtain employment during their free time to help with their education costs and they must participate in athletic, fitness or military activities. See the website for complete details.

Value - $1,000 - $1,500 (140 awarded annually)

Deadline – March 15 (but not before January 2). Applications must be submitted through a Nominator. See the list on their website and contact the nearest one for an appointment/interview.

Website: www.leonardfnd.org